The purpose of the undergraduate program in political science is to provide knowledge and skills necessary to prepare individuals for: (1) entry level leadership positions in government service, public management, or the military; (2) a sufficient level of academic skills necessary to gain entry into and succeed in advanced, graduate study in the field of political science or post-graduate professional education, such as law school; and (3) work in a position in the private sector, such as journalism, communication, and business where knowledge of politics, public policy or governmental relations is of particular importance

(For complete details on this program including course descriptions, academic policies, etc. please refer to the Troy University catalog at https://resources.troy.edu/catalogs/1819undergraduate/index.html

While this program will enjoy wide appeal from CCAF students studying a broad range of career fields, it is believed that this program will be of particular interest to CCAF students completing the AAS degree in , , , , and It may also have interest for CCAF students completing the AAS in or .

The BS Degree in Political Science at Troy University requires:

1. 51 hours of General Studies classes
2. 36 hours of Political Science classes – including 18 semester hours of required upper level classes and 18 semester hours of specialized approved upper level classes for a concentration in
3. 18 semester hours of a minor (usually satisfied by technical education classes at CCAF).
4. 15

18 semem t CCAF).