

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Troy University seeks to admit students who possess the intellectual capacity, maturity, previous training, and motivation necessary for success in educational programs. Troy University welcomes applications from a variety of students including traditional college age students, adults who will combine their educational pursuits with work, or life-long learners who are simply seeking enrichment. Programs and courses are offered for full-time and part-time students, and are offered in a variety of formats and times including traditional day classes, night classes, and weekend classes. Programs or classes are also available through distance learning and other alternative methods of educational delivery.

Students are encouraged to apply well in advance of proposed entrances although some campuses allow for an optional admission if appropriate application material has not been received by the University. The University reserves the right to investigate and review the records of any prospective student to determine the applicant's eligibility to or universities.
