I would like to apply for a position at Troy. How do I submit my resume and other application materials?

o Applicants must apply online in order to be considered for employment. We do not accept application materials in paper format, by mail/email/fax, or through any other method.

I see a particular posting on your employment website. Is the position still open and/or are you still accepting applications?

o If a posting is available on our employment website, then the position is open and we are accepting applications.

If I am not selected,

However, if your application has already been reviewed, we cannot guarantee that the supervisor/committee will conduct another review of your revised application.

I withdrew my application accidentally or unintentionally. How do I resubmit or reapply?

Please contact Human Resources at jobs@troy.edu or 334 241 9581. Applicants cannot reapply, or submit more than one application, to the same posting.
However, Human Resources can resubmit your withdrawn application.
