

Troy University
Freedom of Speech
August 1, 2020 – July 1, 2021

- 1) The date and description of each violation of the policy adopted in this act.

Troy University had no violations of the policy.

- 2) A description of the administrative handling and discipline relating to each violation described.

Not applicable with no violations.

- 3) A description of substantial difficulties, controversies, or successes in maintaining a posture of administrative and institutional

There have been no difficulties or controversies. The successes include the close working relationship the students have with the administration and share with the administration on any events planned or any concerns the student leadership may have with an event while respecting freedom of speech. There is a direct line of communication between campus student leaders and administration.

- 4) Any assessments, criticism, or loss of trust

The University does many programs on campus that promote freedom of speech to include:

- Unity marches (one with athletes, one with intercollegiate and another with the general student body) that include members of the faculty, staff and administration.
- Unity and prayer breakfasts that include the administration, faculty, staff, students and community.
- Annual Bible distribution by the Chidee.